

OUR SERVICES

Garamella Consulting is a Connecticut based recruiting and search firm that connects top-tier professionals with opportunities that match their career goals. Our superior staffing service makes us the firm of choice for companies across the nation.

When you need new talent, your bottom-line demands quick results. From your first call, we set our recruiting process in motion to find you qualified candidates. Whether you need a Manager, a technical employee, or a sales representative, we can find qualified applicants dedicated to getting results.

Top-performing candidates. Garamella Consulting continuously recruits leading professionals to fill your positions. We keep our candidates current on opportunities so they can continue to follow their passion. Our candidates have proven records in the top ten percentile of their industry. And because we represent our candidates confidentially, you will have access to people who are not openly seeking new positions.

National Presence. No matter where you do business, Garamella Consulting can provide you with qualified professionals. We recruit top tier professionals throughout the nation to bring you the best candidates.

Quality service. One phone call to Garamella Consulting puts an extensive array of resources to work for you. You can focus on running your business while we actively recruit, conduct qualifying interviews, and verify previous employment. You can also benefit from our extensive appraisal process that includes reference checks, results verification, and degree verification.

Contact us now and see how we deliver our best.

Tel. 203-445-1766

Email: contactus@garamellaconsulting.com